Information systems provide management with reports to better manage the resources and also provide responsibility reports by which management may be evaluated.

Solutions Manual, Accounting Information Systems

In business, the accounting information system is an integral part of the accounting function. This first chapter is designed to provide a perspective on the role of AIS in organizations. It relates information to the normal activities of a business and interested parties. Accounting and the AIS are put in their proper positions within the organizational structure. After placing the accounting ...
