Exodus: Leaving Home by Orson T Badger is a really good science fiction read. The writing is clever and the characters are as real as you and me. There is a whole cast of characters and each was necessary to convey the story. Starting and ending with David and Cindy, an engineer and a doctor. Elias the brains behind the Ark. The antagonist, Morstene, is despicable. He makes Atilla the Hun look ...

EXODUS: THE POWER OF LEAVING A Sermon by Reverend Lynn Strauss (I did not plan to talk about myself this morning, but as I lived with this topic of leaving and the power it can have in our lives, I found myself remembering a difficult leaving in my life. When I was 21 years old and completing college, having lived at home throughout my urban college experience, I was ready to leave home. The ...
